

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF TENNESSEE
AT GREENEVILLE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA)
v.)	No. 2:12-CR-053-009
)	JUDGE JORDAN
JONATHAN LIGHT)

AGREED ORDER OF REVOCATION

A Petition for Revocation of Supervised Release has been filed against the defendant, Jonathan Light, and the defendant admits that he has violated the conditions of his supervised release as specified in violation numbers 1-10 in the Petition with the exception of the Grade A violation conduct related to the sale and distribution of narcotics. By agreement of the parties, that violation conduct is dismissed. An agreement has been reached between the parties, recommending that Mr. Light's supervised release should be revoked and that he should receive a sentence of 11 months imprisonment followed by two (2) years of supervised release. It is recommended that Mr. Light be afforded all available halfway house allowed by the Bureau of Prisons to aid him in his transition to the community. It is also recommended that Mr. Light serve his term of incarceration at FCI Otisville in Otisville, New York.

Mr. Light agrees to waive his right to a hearing pursuant to Rule 32 of the Rules of Criminal Procedure, waive his right to allocute at a revocation hearing, stipulates to the violations that can be proven by the government by a preponderance of the evidence, and asks that the agreement of the defendant and the government pursuant to Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure be found to be a proper sentence. In doing so, the defendant acknowledges that he is giving up the following rights:

- (1) The right to the assistance of counsel for his defense.

- (2) The right to see and hear all the witnesses and have them cross-examined in his defense.
- (3) The right on his own part not to testify unless he chose to do so in his defense, and
- (4) The right to the issuance of subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses to testify on his behalf.

The Court has considered the Chapter Seven policy statements in the United States Sentencing Guidelines. The violations above constitute Grade B and C violations for which an advisory guideline range of 21 to 24 months would apply given his Criminal History Category VI. The Court has considered these advisory guideline ranges. The Court has also considered the statutory maximum of 24 months imprisonment. The Court has also considered the factors listed in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a).

The Court concludes that the recommended sentence is sufficient, but not greater than necessary, to comply with the purposes set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a). Specifically, the Court finds that the defendant has admitted that the proof could establish by a preponderance of the evidence that he committed the violations alleged in the petition for warrant for offender under supervision except for the Grade A violation conduct related to the sale and distribution of narcotics. That violation is dismissed.

Based on the foregoing, the Court finds that the recommended sentence is sufficient, but not greater than necessary to accomplish the purposes set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a) while taking into consideration all of those factors and the Chapter Seven policy statements.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, therefore, that the defendant's supervised release is hereby revoked. The defendant is hereby sentenced to 11 months imprisonment followed by two (2) years of supervised release. It is recommended that Mr. Light be afforded all available halfway house allowed by the Bureau of Prisons to aid him in his transition to the community. It is also recommended that Mr. Light serve his term of incarceration at FCI Otisville in Otisville, New York.

While on supervised release, you shall comply with the following mandatory conditions of supervision adopted by this Court in Local Rule 83.10:

- (1) The defendant must not commit another federal, state, or local crime.
- (2) The defendant must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
- (3) The defendant must refrain from unlawful use of a controlled substance.
- (4) The defendant must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer.

To promote respect for the law, prevent recidivism, and aid in adequate supervision, the defendant shall also comply with the following standard conditions of supervision adopted by this Court in Local Rule 83.10:

- (1) The defendant must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where the defendant is authorized to reside within 72 hours of release from imprisonment or of the time the defendant was sentenced, unless the probation officer instructs the defendant to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame. Justification: This condition is an administrative requirement of supervision.
- (2) After initially reporting to the probation office, the defendant will receive instructions from the Court or the probation officer about how and when the defendant must report to the probation officer, and the defendant must report to the probation officer as instructed. Justification: This condition is an administrative requirement of supervision.
- (3) The defendant must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where the defendant is authorized to reside without first getting permission from the Court or the probation officer. Justification: This condition is an administrative requirement of supervision.
- (4) The defendant must answer truthfully the questions asked by the defendant's probation officer. Justification: This condition is an administrative requirement of supervision.
- (5) The defendant must live in a place approved by the probation officer. If the defendant plans to change where the defendant lives or anything about the defendant's living arrangements (such as the people the defendant lives with), the defendant must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, the defendant must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change. Justification: This condition will assist the probation officer in monitoring the defendant for protection of the community.

- (6) The defendant must allow the probation officer to visit the defendant at any time at the defendant's home or elsewhere, and the defendant must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of the defendant's supervision that the probation officer observes in plain view. Justification: This condition will assist the probation officer in monitoring the defendant for protection of the community.
- (7) The defendant must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses the defendant from doing so. If the defendant does not have full-time employment, the defendant must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses the defendant from doing so. If the defendant plans to change where the defendant works or anything about the defendant's work (such as the defendant's position or job responsibilities), the defendant must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, the defendant must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change. Justification: This condition will reduce the risk of recidivism and provide for defendant rehabilitation.
- (8) The defendant must not communicate or interact with someone the defendant knows is engaged in criminal activity. If the defendant knows someone has been convicted of a felony, the defendant must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer. Justification: This condition is aimed at reducing the risk of recidivism and providing for public safety.
- (9) If the defendant is arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, the defendant must notify the probation officer within 72 hours. Justification: This condition will assist the probation officer in monitoring the defendant for protection of the community.
- (10) The defendant must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers). Justification: This condition will provide for public and officer safety.

- (11) The defendant must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the Court. Justification: This condition is aimed at reducing the risk of recidivism and providing for public safety.
- (12) If the probation officer determines that the defendant poses a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require the defendant to notify the person about the risk and the defendant must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that the defendant has notified the person about the risk. Justification: This condition is aimed at reducing the risk of recidivism and providing for public safety.
- (13) The defendant must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision. Justification: This condition is an administrative requirement of supervision.

To promote respect for the law, prevent recidivism, and aid in adequate supervision, the defendant shall also comply with the following special conditions of supervision:

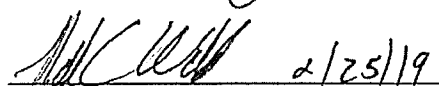

- (1) The defendant shall submit his or her person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, [computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)), other electronic communications or data storage devices or media,] or office, to a search conducted by a United States probation officer or designee. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of release. The defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. An officer may conduct a search pursuant to this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that the defendant has violated a condition of his or her supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation. Any search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner. Justification: This condition will assist the probation officer in monitoring the defendant for protection of the community, as well as providing for officer safety.
- (2) The defendant shall participate in a program of testing and/or treatment for drug and/or alcohol abuse, as directed by the probation officer, until such time as he is released from the program by the probation officer. Justification: This condition will reduce the risk of recidivism and provide for defendant rehabilitation.
- (3) The defendant shall not take any prescribed narcotic drug without notifying the physician that the defendant has a substance abuse problem and without obtaining permission from the probation officer. Justification: This condition will reduce the risk of recidivism and provide for defendant rehabilitation.
